Terms & Conditions:

Please note the following:

The Registered Clubs Act 1976 states "Any person who sells or supplies liquor to an intoxicated person on Registered Club Premises is guilty of an offence. Maximum Penalty $5,500."

Regulations under the Liquor Act and Registered Clubs Act state that it is an offence to serve alcohol to an intoxicated person. For most of us, alcohol is an enjoyable part of social life. However, some may occasionally over indulge in their drinking and become disruptive and anti-social.

In keeping with the Club's commitment to both members and patrons, the 'Responsible Service of Alcohol' policy is supported by Mingara Recreational Club Management and Staff.

As is the 5 Km Rule - for all Registered Clubs.

Guests to Mingara must comply with the licensing laws relating to Club entry requirements.

Persons who reside within a 5 km radius of Mingara and are not currently a member must either:

1. Be signed into the Club by a member upon each visit (and at all times remain in the company of that member),

Or

2. Become a member.

Persons who reside outside the 5 km radius may sign in as a visitor.

Mingara and TEHS Reunion 2008 Committee accept no responsibility for any loss of or damage to property left on Club premises.

Additionally, Mingara and TEHS Reunion 2008 Committee will not be liable for any injuries to persons that may be sustained before, during or after the event or while on Club premises.

As organisers of TEHS Reunion 2008, the Committee may be responsible for damage sustained to Mingara premises or property during this function.

Therefore the Committee respectfully request that all and any attendees of TEHS Reunion 2008 take the utmost care & every precaution not to damage the Club's premises or property.

Special Note:

By making payment to attend TEHS Reunion 2008, it is accepted by the Committee, yourself & attending partner, that you & your attending partner have read and understand all of the above terms and conditions and will abide by them & all applicable laws during this function & at any time while on Mingara premises.

Do you know the whereabouts of any students?

If so, please contact Shannon or Joely with details
